

Nationwide[®] Privacy Statement

Thank you for choosing Nationwide

Our privacy statement explains how we collect, use, share, and protect your personal information. So just how do we protect your privacy? In a nutshell, we respect your right to privacy and promise to treat your personal information responsibly. It's as simple as that. Here's how.

Confidentiality and security

We follow all data security laws. We protect your information by using physical, technical, and procedural safeguards. We limit access to your information to those who need it to do their jobs. Our business partners are legally bound to use your information for permissible purposes.

Collecting and using your personal information

We collect personal information about you when you ask about or buy one of our products or services. The information comes from your application, business transactions with us, consumer reports, medical providers, and publicly available sources. Please know that we only use that information to sell, service, or market products to you.

We may collect and use the following types of information:

- Name, address, and Social Security number
- Assets and income
- Account and policy information
- Credit reports and other consumer report information
- Family member and beneficiary information
- Public information

Sharing your information for business purposes

We share your information with other Nationwide companies and business partners. When you buy a product, we share your personal information for everyday purposes. Some examples include mailing your statements or processing transactions that you request. You cannot opt out of these. We also share your information where federal and state law requires.

Sharing your information for marketing purposes

We don't sell your information for marketing purposes. We have chosen not to share your personal information with anyone except to service your product. So there's no reason for you to opt out. If we change our policy, we'll tell you and give you the opportunity to opt out before we send your information.

Using your medical information

We sometimes collect medical information. We may use this medical information for a product or service you're interested in, to pay a claim, or to provide a service. We may share this medical information for these business purposes if required or permitted by law. But we won't use it for marketing purposes unless you give us permission.

Nationwide[®]
On Your Side

Accessing your information

You can ask us for a copy of your personal information. Please call the number on your insurance ID card if applicable, contact your customer service representative, or send a letter to the address below and have your signature notarized. This is for your protection so we may prove your identity. We don't charge a fee for giving you a copy of your information now, but we may charge a small fee in the future.

We can't update information that other companies, like credit agencies and third parties, provide to us. So you'll need to contact these other companies to change and correct your information.

Send your privacy inquiries to the address below. Please include your name, address, and policy number. If you know it, include your agent's name and number.

Nationwide Specialty Health®
Administered by Consolidated Health Plans
Jed Proujansky, Privacy Officer
2077 Roosevelt Avenue
Springfield, MA 01104

A parting word ...

These are our privacy practices. They apply to all current and former clients of Nationwide health plans. They also apply to joint policy or contract holders. This includes the following companies:

Nationwide Better Health, Inc.
Nationwide Life Insurance Company
Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company
National Casualty Company